

Stacey Harris, former research executive with Bersin & Associates and Brandon Hall, is Vice President of Research and Analytics for Sierra-Cedar, in charge of Sierra-Cedar's Annual HR Systems Survey and Research function.

A leading member of the HR practices and technology research community since 2007, she launched Bersin & Associates HR research practice and conducted groundbreaking research on High-Impact HR organizations, enterprise HR technologies, and key practices across the talent management spectrum. Her research and consulting work afforded her the opportunity to work with large global companies around the world such as McDonald's, Lockheed Martin, Cisco, Credit Suisse, Scotia Bank, and Pfizer on a variety of mission-critical talent initiatives. Prior to joining the research community, Harris led multiple HR, Talent Management and Learning initiatives as both a leader and practitioner. A frequent speaker and facilitator at HR events in the U.S. and abroad, Stacey loves a great conversation and interesting questions – feel free to stop her anytime for a good discussion.

Stacey holds a M. A. Ed from Kent State University, and a communications degree from Ashland University.

Specialties:

HR, Talent, and Learning Technologies
Human Resource Organizations
Talent Management Strategies
Learning and Development
Organization and Governance
HR Metrics and Analytics
Organizational Effectiveness